

What is this website about?

This website presents a Zhineng Qigong Science | Hunyuan Qi Therapy self-healing database featuring self-healing stories of people from around the world. They have been collected by dedicated Zhineng Qigong practitioners, teachers and the international community of Hunyuan Qi Therapists.

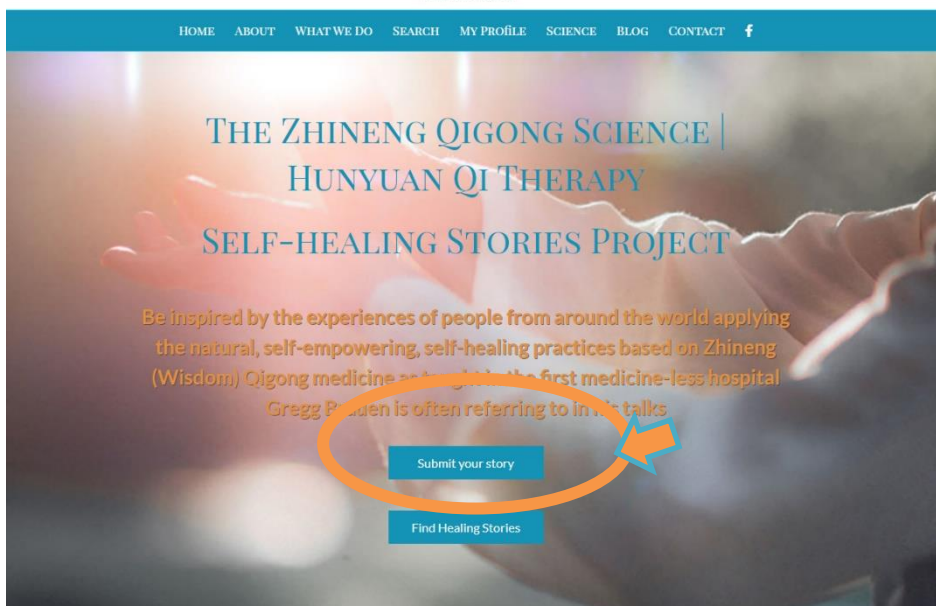

It is our vision to develop this online platform so that you can easily find information, inspiration, motivation, insights and concrete results related to people having successfully applied these effective self-healing methods and practices, based on Zhineng Qigong Science and Hunyuan Qi Therapy developed by Dr Pang Ming.

The vision for this website has been inspired by the book “101 Miracles of Natural Healing” by Zhineng Qigong Master Luke Chan that features 101 truly inspirational stories of individuals who recovered from serious diseases and chronic illnesses using self-healing methods that were taught at Huaxia Zhineng Qigong Center, also known as the world’s largest medicine-less hospital.

We would like to thank you in advance for your contribution!
